

Leighton Green

Following a career spanning more than 25 years in the practice of Forensic Psychiatry, Prison Forensics, General Mental Health, Community Mental Health, Consult Liaison for clients experiencing Dual Disability (Mental Health/Intellectual Disability) and Professional Instructing, Leighton is well versed in behavior as it relates to the human psyche.

Having worked and lived in New Zealand, Australia, the UK and now Singapore/Malaysia, Leighton has provided Coaching and Mentorship to Universities, final year students, new graduates, return to practice clinicians and clinicians under review within his praxis all of which have given him a deeper understanding of what makes people 'tick'.

Leighton is now located in Singapore, and travel between Singapore, Malaysia and New Zealand practicing as a Transformational Coach.

Qualifications and Credentials:

- Health Sciences Degree with a Post Graduate Diploma in the Health Sciences (Mental Health Specialty) from the University of Auckland New Zealand
- Diploma in Life Coaching (with Merit) from the New Zealand Institute of Business Studies (NZIBS)
- Diploma in Christian Ministries (with Distinction) from the Gospel Literature Outreach of New Zealand (GLO)
- a Qualified Professional Instructor having travelled throughout Australia, New Zealand, and the UK teaching the Management of Actual and Potential aggression to Organizations such as the Ministry of Education, Prison Corrections and General Mental Health.